KANSAS SUNDAY SCHOOLS. hirty-third Annual State Convention

Began at Abilene Yesterday Afternoon. Abilene, Kas., May 10.—(Special.) The urday School Association convened here evening for a three days' session

For the first time in the association's history, all delegates are paying their own expenses, and none of the entertainment is of the Kansas State Sunday School Association.

free. The prominent speakers secured include W. J. Semelroth, editor of the In-ternational Evangel, St. Louis; Rev. Dr. orge Merrill, Minneapolis; Rev. Mr. S. Barnitz, Des Moines, Ia., in addition to the leading Sunday school workers of Kansas. About 400 delegates are expected. The music will be under the management of Professor B. S. Hoagland, the leader of the state musical jubilee at Hutchinson. The first meeting of the convention was a children's meeting this afternoon, conducted by Mrs. R. B. Preuszner, of Law-

R. M. WHITE, Treasurer of the Kansas State Sunday School Association.

rence. To-night Professor Hoagland led a song service, after which the president of the association, Martin Mohler, of Topeka, delivered the annual address. The progress of the work in the state during the year has been greater than in several years past. W. J. Semelroth, editor of the International Evangel, St. Louis, delivered the principal address of the evening, speaking on "Needs of Sunday School Teachers."

BLAND TO HOLD HIS JOB.

ari Supreme Court Sustains His

Jefferson City, Mo., May 10.-(Special.) Supreme court en banc to-day decided in favor of Judge Bland, of the St. Louis court of appeals, in the proceedings of Attorney General Crow, at the relation of Judge Rombauer, the defeated candidate, Attorney General Crow, at the relation of Judge Rombauer, the defeated candidate, to oust Bland from office for violation of the corrupt practices election law of 1833. The opinion was written by Judge Marshall, and was concurred in by Chief Justice Gantt and Judges Burgess, Sherwood and Williams, Judges Brace and Robinson dissenting. The opinion was on the demurrer to the petition and the court holds that the charges are insufficient in law for a cause of action, and that they do not bring the case within any of the provisions of the corrupt practices act. The act proposed in the corrupt practices act. The unit proposed in the Northwest. To Butte, $25.00, first class. To Spokane, $25.00, second class. To Spokane, $25.00, second class. To Spokane, $25.00, second class. To Portland, Tacoma and Seattle, $20.00, second class. To Portland the corrupt practices ejection law of 1832. The opinion was written by Judge Marshall, and was concurred in by Chief Justice Gantt and Judges Burgess, Sherwood and Williams, Judges Burgess, Sherwood and Williams, Judges Brace and Robinson dissenting. The opinion was on the demurrer to the petition and the court holds that the charges are insufficient is lew for a cause of action, and that they do not bring the case within any of the provisions of the corrupt practices act. The act prohibits bribery by voters, and the petition does not charge that any voters were bribed. The charge that Bland, for himself, and his friends for him, partly with a knowledge and partly without his knowledge spent more money than the law lows him to spend, falls to establish a ause of action, because it is "inconsist-nt and absurd to require a man to forfeit an office to which he has been elected for he reason that someone for him and without his knowledge spent money for him which, added to what he himself spent, was more than the law allowed him to spend."

To Apply for a Rehearing.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 10.—(Special.) Attorney General Crow stated to-day that he would file a motion for a rehearing in the Bland ouster case, and in the event
the court overruled the motion he would file an amended petition and bring the case before the court again for another decision.

AGREEMENT AS TO KOREA.

Uspan and Russia Have Come

Formal Understanding on Tokio, May 10 .- It is announced in the gov ernment gazette to-day that the Russian nd Japanese governments have agreed on a modus vivendi regarding Korea. On the 25th of April the representatives of the two governments at Tokio signed a pro-tocol, the text of which, as published in the gazette to-day, is as follows: "First—Russia and Japan definitely recognize the sovereignty and entire independence of Korea, and mutually engage to re-

ternal affairs of that country. "Second-Desiring to avoid every possible cause of misunderstanding in the future, Russia and Japan mutually engage, in case Korea should apply to either of them for assistance or advice, not to take any measures in the nomination of military instruc-tors or financial advisers without having reviously come to a mutual agreement in previously come to a mutual agreement the matter.

"Third—In view of the large development of Japanese commercial and industrial enterprises in Korea as well as the considerable number of Japanese subjects resident in that country, the Russian government will not impede the development of commercial and industrial relations between and Korea."

Free to Teachers and Scholars.

In 1897 we had thousands of requests from teachers and scholars for Wonderland '97. The edition—a large one—was exhausted long before the end of the year. Wonderland '98 is now ready, It is entirely different from the former book. It has a chapter on The Agricultural Northwest, crammed full of valuable information; one on Yellowstone Park, written especially for teachers; another on Alaska and Klondike, and one on A Cance Lake Trip, that will be of interest to schools. The book has a high art cover designed by Leyendecker, and it is profusely illustrated from new photographs. The Northern Pacific rallway will send the book and a revised map of Yellowstone Park upon receipt of 6 cents in stamps or postal order. Send to Charles S. Fee, general passenger agent, St. Paul. S. Fee, general passenger agent, St. Paul, Minn. Write address plainly and state where you saw the advertisement.
